Varsity 2— St. Philips High School 6.

May 1.—The Varsity journeyed to Chicago intending to bring home the scalp of St. Philip's High School. Things began to come their way right off the reel when Kihm landed on the first pitched ball for a single, but the next two batters up went the strike out route. St. Joseph drew first blood in their half of the second when Deery singled, went to second on a wild pitch and scored when Martin fumbled Schellinger's slow grounder. Ricks started the third with a screaming drive to left field. It had the ear marks of a home run but Tobin headed off the runner by some fast fielding and a wonderful peg. Then Daniels got on with two down and scored by some loose infield work on the part of St. Philip's players. This was the end of St. Joseph's scoring.

St. Philips were mowed down in regular order in their half of the first but came back with about five left handed batters in the second who after collecting four hits coupled with a base on balls and an error scored 5 runs. They just about blowed their stock in this round but came back in the fourth frame with three hits which netted only one run, thanks to some neat fielding on the part of the Varsity infield.

The game was a contest between the outfielders. It was a slugging match, but St. Philip's men proved more adapt to capturing the long drives of the Varsity and pegging them to the bases than St. Joseph's out gardeners. Tobin by a wonderful peg, Martin by a spectacular catch distinguished themselves. St. Joseph's infield far outshone their opponents. Maloney drew applause from the crowd when he pulled down a foul ball back of third base while he worked admirably with Kihm at second. Ricks pitched a hard game but got himself in many pinches through his wildness due to the fact that six of St. Philip's men batted left handed.

St. Philip's field was in a miserable condition, rough gravel, sand and cinders covering the entire field. Accommodations for spectators were equally bad. Ground rules were necessary in the outfield and St. Philip's owes two of their runs to a hidden brick in right field. The umpire was there on very few instances. If I thought he wouldn't get angry I would have asked him if he could stand on the corner of Polk and Dearborn Sts. and see the Dearborn Street Station. It was a slugging match but St. Philip's outfielders were there when the Varsity connected with men on the bases. A ninth inning rally was frustrated when, with the bases clogged and one down, Bruin and Maloney raised easy flies to the outfield.

SENIOR LEAGUE.

April 28. Giants 9 — Pirates 4.

Managers Mattingly and Lynch had the honor of breaking in the new Senior sets of suits, and the togs seemed to have an effect on their playing. Farrel and Dusch tried their luck against the slugging Giants then Lynch tried to stop them but their lead was too great. Mattingly held the Pirates under cover while his teammates connected for hits when needed. The game was loose but interesting. The Pirates lost their game through the wildness of their pitchers. Three fast double plays cut off runs. Silverstein with a three bagger to the road and L. DeJaco with a two bagger down third line were the batting stars.

May 3. Giants 9—Phillies 5

The reorganized Giants and Phillies started out in fast fashion, Schwartz and R. Kanney pitching air tight ball with good support. Finally both teams struck a hitting bee and the ball went to every corner of the field; Hellen starring with four hits, Dusek with three, Farrell with a three bagger and Smith with a double. Maher shone in the field and G. Annen purloined two bases.

JUNIOR LEAGUE.

WHITE SOX 5 — NAPS 6.

April 27. In a game which was anyone's up to the final count, the Naps finished ahead of the White Sox. The game was loose, featured by much hitting and an occasional piece of good baseball. The White Sox drew first blood with two runs in the first lead which was overcome by the Naps in the second frame with three tallies. The White Sox added three more but in the fifth Farley went up in the air and with a few lucky hits the Naps closed the contest with three runs in the final frame. Ambos and Farley pitched steady ball but wavered when their support lagged.

April 29. RED SOX 3—NAPS 5.

The Red Sox went after the Naps bound to bust the 1000 pc boasted of by Kuhn and his teammates but Ambos showed Seyfried's sluggers that they would have to produce more stuff than they did. The game was fast and close with enough hitting to spice and season the Red Sox's defeat. Ambos with 12 strike outs bested Mueller with 10 to his credit. The two teams' batting was about even, the Naps having the shade. Daly featured with a two bagger.

May 2. WHITE SOX 16—RED SOX 5.

Too many errors and too many hits beat the Red Sox when they clashed with the White Sox. Mueller's three errors in a row jerked the tails of Mgr. Seyfried's and Capt. Dolan's goats with the result that Mgr. Gabel's army reinforced by Leut. home-run Kavaschitz, three-bagger Schmidt and gunner Farley romped away and snowed the Red Sox under a heap of 16 tallies. The White Sox were "on" both at bat and in the field, Schmidt shining with a three-bagger, a two-bagger and three singles. Farley pitched a steady game and collected a two bagger while Kavaschitz punched a home run ticket. Daly, pitching in place of Mueller, pitched a good game but his support was rank until Lear replaced Mueller at short and apparently put a little ginger in the game when the manager's and captain's goats returned to their pastures.

St. Joseph Juniors 11—St. Xavier Jrs 9.

May 3.

St. Xavier Juniors lost the first game of the inter-hall junior series to the north side juniors. Ambos, pitching for the north side, twirled steady ball up to the sixth inning when he weakened permitting Humphry to clout the ball for a circuit dash with two men on. Davis on the firing line for the south side boys received poor and erratic support. Gabel with a two bagger, Daly with a timely single and P. Ryan in the pinch hitting role featured in the batting. Each pitcher registered six strike outs but the north side infield was tighter in the pinches than the south side. With the score 7 to 8 against them in the sixth the juniors got their eyes on the ball and chased four runs across and then tightened up and let the St. Xavier crowd down in one, two, three order in the seventh and final inning.

Campus Heroes. No. 2.

St. Joseph's Varsity men have won many victories but they have also felt a few stinging defeats. The honor for a victory never goes begging, for there are plenty of claimants for it, but the ones willing to bear the blame of a defeat are few and far between. The players get the honor for a victory and the poor manager is left to get the blame for the defeat. He does not get it, it is shoved upon him. If there should be a campus hero it should be a general manager. He needs the qualities of a saint and the endurance of a bull. When a student body chooses a general manager they should consider two important qualities: broadness of shoulders and broadness of mind.

They made their best bet when they selected our present general manager of base-ball. With a pair of shoulders that would be the pride of a Chicago policeman he is shouldering a job which carries with it a small pay envelope. You must test his broadness of mind by personal intercourse, but be assured that he has the ability to adjust his brain tissues to suit your particular case.

Whenever you have any troubles just tell them to the general manager. That's his business and the reason of his existence. He is a traveling bureau of information. He has two ears one for the entrance of your complaint and the other for their exit. The working of his mind purifies your troubles and returns them to you, a consoled man. If after this process you feel satisfied, thank the general manager, for he has an iron chest full of thanks.

When you approach a general manager if he should treat you coldly or bluntly do not get excited, he did not mean it, he was only trying to find out whether you like him or not. Give him a helping hand whenever possible. It surely must be a hard heart that will not pity a man lugging a sack of hickory clubs across the campus and clearing the wire cable at a single bound in pursuit of a foul ball.

Beckman—"How can you tell?"

Donahue—"Why, can't you smell it."
